Access the Optum E/M code evaluation tool

The E/M code evaluation tool includes the latest coding guideline changes and logic to office and other outpatient services (new and established patient). This tool walks you through E/M code selection by looking at different components of the E/M code (e.g., Exam, History, Risk/Complexity (Medical Decision Making or Time Based). Then the tool will supply the correct code based on 1995, 1997 and 2021 E/M coding guidelines and logic.
